

Walla Walla Area Crime Watch, Walla Walla Police Department, and the City of Walla Walla are proud to present

Workplace Safety / Active Shooter

March 19, 2018

THREE sessions available:

9:00 a.m. or 1:30 p.m. or 6:00 p.m.

Maxey Hall, Whitman College, 345 Boyer Avenue

During this 3 hour presentation, we will cover:

- A history of workplace violence The trends The verbal warning signs of violence
- *The non-verbal warning signs*Verbal "Do's" How to talk to an angry person
- * Verbal "Don'ts"* What not to say *The common mistake workplaces make Personal space
- * Body language* "Do's" and "Don'ts" 10 workplace best practices
- *Domestic violence in the workplace and best intervention practices *
- Intervention strategies with an angry person after an event How to contact an angry person *
- *The #1 mistake made by workplaces in the USA * The power of intuition - how it speaks to us *
- *Documentation - the importance of how to document * What to document *
- *The 3 kinds of threats * When to call the police * Physical safety and parking lots * Active Shooter *
- * How to respond * Creative weapons at your disposal *

Our Presenters:

Jim Sawyer has been a Crime Prevention and Personal Safety presenter for over 30 years. He is a certified instructor in Nonviolent Crisis Intervention, member and presenter with Homeland Security, President and Past President with the WA State Crime Prevention Association and Board member with this association for over 20 years. He is also certified as a Nat'l Crime Prevention Specialist with the Nat'l Crime Prevention Assn. Jim instructs on going classes for Seattle Children's staff on Workplace Violence, Personal safety, and began an in-house self-defense course for women on his team. Jim has also taught classes region wide for hospitals, schools, seminars and businesses on verbal de-escalation. He has over 30 years working in Security Services at Seattle Children's Hospital and has a bachelor's degree in Society in Justice.

Sergeant Kevin Huxoll has 18 years of service with the Walla Walla Police Department. He has 23 years in SWAT as a Team Leader and Scout Sniper. He is Meth Lab Certified and is an Armorer – certified with Glock/Remington/Colt. He is a Weapons of Mass Destruction Instructor for Homeland Security and a Firearms Instructor, specializing in: Pistol/Rifle/Shotgun/Subgun. He has a High-Risk Event Planning Certificate, Tactical Operations, and Active Shooter Instructor Certifications.

Name _____ Company _____

Which session would you like to attend?

Morning (9:00-NOON) _____ Afternoon (1:30-4:30 p.m.) _____ Evening Session (6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.) _____

On line Registration and payment Workplace Safety registration form

$15.00 per person if registered by March 12th * Space is limited *

Registrations after March 12th - $20.00 per person

Questions: Vicki Ruley vruley@wallawalla.gov (509) 524-4409 Checks should be made payable to WWACW and mailed to Walla Walla Area Crime Watch, P.O. Box 216, Walla Walla, WA 99362